USPA NEWS - Multi-Millionaire Pakistani Consortium Seeking Urgent Meeting with Army Chief to Save PIA
A consortium of multimillionaire business tycoons from within Pakistan and overseas Pakistani ex-compatriots are poised to save PIA in the national interest of Pakistan, said Shazada Hayat President UICF (UK) and international community welfare campaigner.

The consortium of business tycoons are joining together to bid for the national treasure of Pakistan the PIA. The consortium of philanthropist and business tycoons are seeking an urgent meeting with the guardian of the nation the Pakistan Army Chief of Staff General Asim Munir. The delegation consortium of Pakistan national and international investors wish to urgently put forward their proposal, aims and objectives to the Pakistan army chief. The patriotic Pakistani business tycoons see PIA as the pride of the nation and also as a national and public interest issue. After the crucial and special meeting with the Pakistan Army chief the consortium intends to make a bid offer subject to contract for PIA.

Without mincing one's words, the PIA has suffered a horrendous ordeal at the hands of certain corrupt bureaucrats in the secretariates and some of the scrupulous corrupt politicians. As a result of these treacherous individuals, they have managed to put PIA on the life support machine. The consortium of the business tycoons are very disappointed at how PIA, the national pride of Pakistan has been used, abused and exploited by the rouge and negative elements within the Pakistan corridors of power. As a result, the patriotic consortium bidders have no confidence or trust in any of these individuals who are not handling the privatisation of PIA in the national interest of Pakistan.

The consortium of Pakistani business tycoons wishes to see the control of PIA in the hands of Pakistan and in Pakistan. If the sale and privatisation of PIA is not put in the proper hands of the true patriotic competent Pakistani officials it is certain to be doomed. However, if PIA gets into the wrong hands such as the wolves dressed in lamb clothing, they will most certainly take PIA to extinction. This will be the greatest tragedy Pakistan has suffered since losing East Pakistan, said Shazada Hayat.
It has been learned that some of the other current rogue Pakistani bidders are acting as frontman for foreign non-Pakistani investors. This will be counterproductive for the welfare of the nation. It has also been learned that some of the other rogue bidders have been put forward by the corrupt individuals within the secretariat and by the corrupt Pakistani politicians with negative ulterior motives. The shocking and alarming thing is, some of those fake investors are asking the corrupt and treacherous elements within the system to find them funders for their unrealistic tender bids for PIA.

Shazada Hayat said, The consortium of business tycoons have full faith and confidence in PIA. They believe PIA can once again roar back into the skies around the globe, as one of the greatest airlines in the world. The great national flag carrier can re-emerge as one of the best airlines in the world. The Pakistani nation can once again say with pride and joy that the PIA are great people to fly with. The consortium of Pakistani business tycoons believe that it is the duty of every patriotic Pakistani to stand up, support, defend and protect Pakistan's jewel in the crown “the PIA”, as prevention is much better than a cure. The consortium of national and international Pakistani business tycoons are being asked to lead the campaign and bid for PIA.
Shazada Hayat went to say, Choudhury Muhammad Sarwar the former Governor of Punjab Pakistan and the first British Muslim MP is a very successful business tycoon and philanthropist; he is the founder of Sarwar Foundation and one of the biggest angels for charity in Asia for children.

Chaudhry Mohammad Sarwar gave up British politics and his business empire in the UK and returned to Pakistan to help make Pakistan prosperous. Chaudhry Mohammad Sarwar said he will do all that he can to save PIA because it is in the national interest of Pakistan. PIA is most certainly the pride of the nation. Muhammad Yusuf Devan, a very successful business tycoon, philanthropist and descendant of a very patriotic and noble family, his ancestors were industrialists and helped support Quaid-E-Azam Muhammad Ali Jinnah to create and build Pakistan. This great family helped Pakistan so much in its hour of need. Yousuf Dewan said it would be a great honour for him to help and support PIA and he will do all that he can to save the PIA, because it is our moral responsibility to defend and protect Pakistan and the assets of Pakistan. Syed Hassan Bukhari, a multi-millionaire business tycoon, son of a very pious mother who was well-known in Gujarat Pakistan as Shazadi Sahiba, Mother of Gujrat.
Syed Hassan Bukhari is one of the modern telecommunication network pioneers in Pakistan. He provided state of the art communication systems in Pakistan from cities to rural areas of Pakistan.

Syed Hassan Bukhari is also on the verge of launching a private airline in Pakistan, which he is now putting on hold for PIA, in the national interest of Pakistan. Syed Hassan Bukhari has stated that there were huge potentials for PIA on the world stage and he will do all he can to help save PIA, Pakistan's outstanding asset. The former Senator General Abdul Qayyum, who many see as more than qualified to be the president of Pakistan, a true patriot with knowledge, experience and wisdom, is respected as a great administrator because of his phenomenal and outstanding leadership quality. The former Senator General Abdul Qayyum, who many see as more than qualified to be the president of Pakistan, a true patriot with knowledge, experience and wisdom, is respected as a great administrator because of his phenomenal and outstanding leadership quality.

The former Senator General Abdul Qayyum, who many see as more than qualified to be the president of Pakistan, a true patriot with knowledge, experience and wisdom, is respected as a great administrator because of his phenomenal and outstanding leadership quality.

General Abdul Qayyum has stated he was more than ready to help and support the nation's greatest asset PIA, which has in recent times not been properly handled. If PIA was handled properly, professionally and with patriotism PIA would dominate the world once again taking to the skies as the world's great airlines. General Abdul Qayyum has stated, on many occasions, that the control of PIA must stay within Pakistan, as it is in the nation's national interest.

General Abdul Qayyum has confirmed that he will do all he can to help, defend, protect and support the national treasure of Pakistan the PIA. This is in order for PIA to be again the great airline and the admiration of the world as it once was.
PIA is most certainly the pride of the nation. The consortium of 10 Pakistani business tycoons are making an urgent appeal to Pakistan's Army Chief of Staff General Asim Munir, for a meeting in the national interest of Pakistan. The meeting will enable the consortium to put forward their proposal and plan to the Pakistan army chief, to help the consortium save the great PIA in its hour of need,
